Download this free game to your PC.As you know, we're going to be doing the typical Harry Potter-themed party. We received quite a few emails about the theme and I'd like to clear a few things up for you before we get too far along in the planning. When I first put the idea of our Harry Potter party together, I thought about it as "Slightly campy" and "Extremely magical". In my mind I expected to do something like J K Rowling's Christmas party, where we did a champagne-and-lovely-crepes kind of thing but kept it Harry Potterish at the same time. But as I had been getting more and more excited about the idea, I realized I wanted to really be able to do the Harry Potter theme totally. So, this time, I just kind of took it for a test run last month and let everyone else play with it. And the good news is, it was a riot. Now, Harry Potter might not be the first thing that comes to mind when you think of fluffy things, but trust me, that's what this party was. The kids actually really LOVED our Harry Potter party. Nobody who went even came home without at least one goodie bag and (apparently) the bags are really hard to find now. The kids loved the pyramids and the costumes were awesome (but it made picking out a witch or a wizard for each student SO hard!). We got the idea to make the party around the Invisibility Cloak. At the time, we were still using the dishes from a party we did a few months ago. The dishes were nearly the exact shape of the Invisibility Cloak, but we just wanted to disguise the truth that the party was Harry Potter-themed. So, we draped a few sheets and pieces of fabric over were some surprises and upsets in the final day of competition. While many thought that figure skating would be a clean sweep of medals for the Canadians, the Czech Republic won the first men's ice hockey gold medal in 40 years. They. A two-year-old girl has died in hospital after a car hit a tree in Moore Park, Sydney. The car clipped the tree with the baby girl inside. She died at the scene. The driver and passenger were only slightly injured. The car hit the tree close to the corner of Moore Park and Clarkson Parade. The girl was taken to St George Hospital in a critical condition, but died shortly afterwards, police say. "The driver and passenger of the vehicle were both slightly injured," a NSW Ambulance spokesman said. Police say the accident occurred near the corner of Moore Park and Clarkson Parade about 11am. It's understood the car was driven by a woman, aged in her 40s. "The injuries to the driver were of a lower body nature," they said. "The vehicle went over the top of a parked car and landed on a tree. "Fire crews attend to a van which is also on the ground. No one in the van appears to be injured." There are no reports of damage to the tree. An Ambulance NSW spokesman said the girl was taken to St George Hospital in a critical condition, but died shortly afterwards. She died about 4.20pm. The NSW Ambulance spokesman said two paramedics and three firefighters provided emergency medical treatment at the scene. "They are all well," he said.
